RACING FOR BLOOD,

Five Thousand Visitors to Homewood Park Witness a Number of Exciting Finishes.

ONE EVENT THAT WAS JUST A GIFT

Excellent Time Made by Participants in the 2:17 Pace in Spite of a Heavy Track.

A PIRST-CLASS PROGRAMME FOR TO-DAY

Black Maria Visitors Send a Thrill of Excitement Through the Crowd.

"The people of Pittsburg should be satisfied with these races," said Judge Van Osten, of Philadelphia, at the Homewood Driving Park yesterday afternoon. "There have been more close and exciting finishes at this track than usually fall to the lot of a race course at one meeting. The track is a little slow to-day, but to-morrow it should be in shape for a race for a kingdom. The slow time to-day is due to the fact that the horses have to keep out 20 feet from the pole, as the track is very soft next the inside fence. It is hardening up very fast, however, and should be all right to-mor-

It looked as if many persons coindided with the Judge's opinion of the races, as 5,000 passed the turnstile vesterday and appeared to thoroughly enjoy themselves. Pool-selling was very brisk, and those who did not win came out nearly even, if they are to be believed. Of course everybody who is anybody was there, and a casual glauce at the faces of the audience confirmed the belief that success in politics and a love of sport go hand in hand.

A LITTLE EXCITEMENT. There was no disorder, and only one flash of excitement, Several ladies walked back of the grand stand to inspect the Black Maria, which was located there as a menace to evilwas made for the place. A number of persons started a cry of "Fight!" possibly with the in tention of calming the excitement, and then everybody-men, women, children and police, broke for the Black Maria. Assistant Superintendent O'Mara was going to the scene at a gait that was the ency of all who witnessed it, but unfortunately became entangled in the long grass and was checked up with unbecom-ing suddenness. As soon as the facts of the case became known 2,500 persons sneaked away, and tried to leave the impression that they had simply called in passing.

they had simply called in passing.

The third event on the day's programme was an exhibition by Harry Wilkes. He was to be driven by John E. Turner to beat his record of 2:1834. The track was uniavorable for fast time, and the attempt was deforred until today. The horse was brought out, however, and went a mile for fun in 2:2334. A GOOD RACE.

The first event called was the unfinished 2:27 trot, which had been postponed from Wednesday. Keokee had two heats and Mikagan and Vaspasian one aplece. Honest George was drawn and five horses started with Keokee favorite at $25, field $15. Before the horses favorite at $25, field $15. Before the horses get away the drivers of Present, Buckskin Dick, Mikagan and Vaspasian were fined $5 apiece for not scoring to the pole horse. Vaspasian led all the way, Keokee and Mikagan making a pretty fight in the stretch, but without avail, as Vaspasian took the heat by half a length from Mikagan, Keokee third, Present fourth and Dick fifth. Time, 228%. Present and Buckskin Dick went to the stable, leaving but three starters for the next beat. Vespasian led to the quarter when Mikagan made the pace. At the three quarters Keokee got in the push, and the three horses sailed gally lato the stretch. Mikagan got under the wire a neck ahead of Keokee, Vaspasian third. Time, 2:28%. The last beat was rednot. Each horse had two beats and this was to decide the race. Mikagan this was to decide the race. Mikag took the lead with Keokee close I litted, but behaving badly, while V pusion was close up. At the half Vaspasi made a bid, but was not in it. Keokee a Mikagan wheeled into the stretch, where e broke twice, but settled right down aga Keokee beat Mikagan by a neck in 2:30%. Summary, unfinished race, 2:27 class, trottin purse $1,600. Keokee, ch. m. William B.

JUST GIVEN AWAY

The first race on the regular programme was the 2:23 trot, which partook strongly of the nature of a gift enterprise, Kinsman, a metamorphosed pacer, formerly the property of Mayor Myman, being given the! first beat Abbie graciously accepting the second, and W. graciously accepting the second, and Semicolon taking the other three with a "thank-you-kindly" air which was quite ediffing. The first hea was simply a funeral procession in 229. The judges intimated to the drivers that they had to do better, and it looked for a time as if it would be declared no heat. The second heat was better. Kinsman led to the three-quarters, and the three horses came down the stretch side by side. A hot finish gave Abbie V the heat by a neck, with Semicolon the same distance ahead of Kinsman. Time, 2234. Semicolon led all the way in third heat, Abbie V making a futile effort to catch Semicolon in the stretch, but getting there a length behind. Time, 2:244. Semicolon took the other two heats easily in 2:25 and 2:254. nmary, first race, 2:23 class, trotting, purse

THE FAVORITE WINS. The second race was the 2:17 pace, and was a good one. Scioto Girl was the favorite, and ustained the judgment of the talent. In the first heat Saily C took the pole from Black

York at the first turn, with Elmonarch lapped. Lockinvar broke so badly that before he got his feet again he was out of gos his feet again he was out of the race and distanced. Sally C and Elmonarch passed the three-quarter pole happed, but after entering the stretch Splan drove Elmonarch into first place, and finished as he pleased, Sally C second, Black York third, Scioto Girl fourth. Thee, 222. Elmon-arch, Scioto Girl and Sally C made a beautiful race to the half in the second heat, and all three could have been covered by one blanket. Sally C found the pace too hot and dropped fally C found the pace too hot, and dropped tack a length, while Elmonarch and Scioto back a length, while Elmonarch and Scioto Girl went down the stretch neck and neck. At the draw gates Scioto Girl was a nose ahead, and while Elmonarch responded gamely to Spilan's urging, the black mare outfooted him to the wire and won by half a length, Sally C third. The time was 2221, which was very good on such a track. In the third heat Scioto led to the quarter, but all were bunched at the half, where Elmonarch explored the atmosto the quarter, but all were bunched at the half, where Elmonarch explored the atmosphere. Scloto Girl came easily in the stretch, winning by two lengths. Elmonarch taking second place after a sharp brush with Black York. Time, 225. Scioto Girl led all the way in the fourth heat, closely pressed by Black York. At the half York tried to pass the Girl, but failed, the latter taking the heat and race, in 2286. Third and fourth money was divided between Black York and Sally C.

EXPECTING A CROWD.

A Bright Outlook for Sport at the Track To-Day. With fine weather to-day the track will be exceptionally fast, and an immense crowd is ex-pected to be in attendance. The exhibition race of Harry Wilkes, who is expected to beat his record of 2:13%, for a special purse, will be the feature of the day. In addition, three good races are on the programme, the 2:25 trot, the free-for-all trot, and the 2:20 pace. The entries

TIPS OF THE TRACK.

Minor Matters Mentioned in a Casual Way at Homewood Park.

SEMICOLON, the winner of the 2:23 trot, is by Kinsman got a great reception when he won the first heat in the 2:23 trot.

EX-MAYOR McCallin left his ball players and doers. The rumor was started that women were under arrest, and a grand rush. The Pennsylvania Rallroad ran a train of 15 cars from Homewood to town after the races were over and every coach was packed. DANDY, the winner of the 2:33 trot, lowered her mark of 2:30%, obtained at Greensburg last fall, to 2:29%. Some persons thought the heat was done in still better time.

AFTER the second heat of the 2:23 trot there was a grand rush to back Dandy. Those who had been betting against the bay wanted to get their money out of the pool box.

JOHN SPLAN rode St. Hector In the 2:23 trot. and he asked the judges for fair play on the ground that the owner of the bay was an Englishman and a good fellow at that. What the horse really needed was more speed.

C. L. BOBINSON, of Philadelphia, owner of sally C, was on the track watching the work of the mare. Sally has not got down to business yet, her race yesterday being her second appearance on the track after two years' absence. She has a colt which is a mitual trotter. "DOUBLE X." has forsaken the cough drop business. He is assisting Levi Uiman in dispos-ing of programmes at Homewaod and has now potten up a little circuit of his own, embracing Weitsville, Washington, Pa., Youngstown, Wheeling, Columbus and Beaver.

says that Acting President O'Neil, while in conversation with a gentleman in that city a few days ago, stated his intention of resigning upon his return to this city, be-cause of alleged unfair treatment he has received from the other members of the Board of Directors. The telegram also stated that Mr. O'Neil would ask that his stock be purchased by the other members of the company chased by the other members of the company.

After reading the telegram Mr. O'Neil made the following statement to The Disparch:

"A part of it is correct, and other parts are entirely wrong. It is true that I have resigned as managing director, but I still retain my interest in the club. I resign because my work is really finished. I only took the team for a short time because Mr. Nimick had not the time to properly manage it during the pres-ent trouble. Now the fight is virtually over, and as I have brought the team from a big losing venture to a place where it is self-sup-porting, I feel perfectly satisfied, and turn it over to Mr. Nimick in good shape and playing better ball than when I took it."

MR. O'NEIL'S WORK. Mr. O'Neil took the team on May 14, when month's salaries were due and the team was playing very poor ball, a drawing card nowhere and losing money very fast. The salary list was then about $40,000. Since then the salary was then about $40,000. Since then the salary list has been reduced to about half what it was and the club is nearly paying its own way. There is harmony in the team, and notwithstanding the fact that they are losing pretty regularly, they still have friends in other cities who are glad to see them at the grounds.

At Philadelphia Wednesday Billy Sunday received a beautiful bouquet marked "from 100 citizens." and he afterward presented it to Manager Harry Wright. This brought out tremendous applause.

It is reported that the exact cause of Mr. O'Neil's giving up the team at the present time was an article that appeared recently in which Mr. Nimick was made to say that his O'Neil's human and the say that his O'Neil's at the say that his o'Neil's appeared. (O'Neil's) management was not giving entire satisfaction. However, Mr. O'Neil says every-thing is harmonious, and that he leaves the team with the best wishes of all concerned. THE PRESENT MANAGEMENT.

Manager Hecker will now have full charge team on its trips abroad and it will be run on the same plan as last year's management. There is no doubt but that Hecker is a ment. There is no doubt but that Hecker is a good man in his position and will continue to give entire satisfaction as manager.

Arrangements have been made whereby the three games scheduled for Pittsburg and Brooklyn in this city next week will be played in the latter city. Cincunsati also wants her next series here transferred to the Queen City and the probabilities are that the change will be made. The club seems to be out for the gate receipts, and as the people don't go to their games in Pittsburg they propose to go where they can get the largest attendance. The Players' League has the best of them here, so they will go to the cities where they stand a better show.

For the Bostons Long opened with a single and went to second on Osborne's fumble. Two sacrifices scored him. In the second, after McGarr went out at first, Bennett secured a base on balls. Sales' fumble of Getzein's slow hit gave him a base and advanced Bennett. A wild pitch advanced each a base and both scored on Long's single, the latter making second on the attempt to catch Getzein at the plate. Tucker's two-baser scored Long, and the former went out trying to make third.

In the sixth the visitors added three runs. McGarr got a base on balls and scored on Bennett and Berger's error gave Smith third. Getzein flew out and Smith was out at the plate on Long's life, the latter going to second on the play. Tucker's single scored Long. Attendance 250. The score:

National League Record.

GREAT IS GUMBERT.

The Pittsburg Players' Unable to Hit His Delivery at All-Nearly a Shut-Out-A Dispute Between the Umpires-A Couple of Games To-Day.

The Pittsburg Players' League team meekly received a severe drubbing from the Boston aggregation at Exposition Park yesterday, but with undiminished zeal and courage will tackle the Bean-eaters twice this afternoon, the first game being called at 2:15. The attendance was very fair considering the counter attraction at Homewood, but there was nothing to be en-Homewood, but there was nothing to be enthusiastic about. Galvin was hit hard and often, and Kuehne, the German gentleman, who is supposed to cover third base, made three costly errors in his usual happy style.

Gumbert seems to be by all odds the best pitcher in the Players' League. But two hits were made off his delivery until the ninth inning, when the whilom resident of the East End generously presented the local aggregation with three hits and two runs, thus avoiding what looked like a certain shut-out. A peculiar thing happened in the first inning, when Brown lined the ball to right. One umpire declared it was foul, while another velled that it was fair. The latter was undoubtedly correct, and so it was decided after a deal of kicking. Brown reached third and might have made a home run had it not been for the contradictory cries of "foul," "tair," etc.

Boston scored twice in the first, once in the third, five times in the fifth and once each in the seventh and eighth. The feature of the game, outside of Gumbert's pitching, was a beautiful running catch by Fields. Attendance, 1,576. Score:
